

Humanist ethics: humanist responses

How might a humanist respond to these statements?

- 1) We can't all agree on what is right and wrong - it's all just a matter of personal preference.

- 2) If you don't believe in a god, then there is no reason to be good.

- 3) Without guidance from a holy book we could never know what is the right thing to do.

