

Society: humanist responses

How might a humanist respond to these statements?

- 1) What would motivate a humanist to try to make the world a better place?

- 2) Human beings are all different. We can't possibly agree on how to organise society in a way that makes everybody happy.

- 3) Secularism only benefits the non-religious.

