

Happy Human Flash Cards

Print, cut out and laminate the cards to create matching and sorting activities to encourage awareness and recognition of the variety of different Happy Human symbols. These can also be used in a variety of games such as snap, odd one out, and memory activities such as Kim's game.

Through playful interaction with the various Happy Human symbols, the aim is for the children to become familiar with the humanist concept of trying to live a happy life.

The following key is primarily for teachers, and children with more inquisitive minds. It is not essential learning for early years children.
